THE WILDLIFE SOCIETY

Objectives. The objectives of the Society are: (a) Establishment of professional solidarity and maintenance of the highest possible professional standards; (b) development of all types of wildlife management along sound biological lines; (c) publications to effect these ends; (d) protection of the interests of its members.

Membership. Active Membership, requiring election by the Council, is open to persons professionally engaged in the practice or teaching of wildlife management, in wildlife administration, in wildlife research or in graduate study of these subjects, who is a graduate of a school approved by the Council; or who, in the opinion of the Council, has acquired an understanding of wildlife work comparable to that required by an approved school.

Associate Membership is open to any interested person who is sponsored by two Active Members.

Dues. Dues for Active Members are $5.00, and for Associate Members $3.00, annually.

Council. The governing body of the Society is the Council, composed of the four Officers and one representative from each of six regions in the United States. Provision is made for additional regions in other countries as the need arises.

Officers. The Officers elected for 1941 are:

President, Richard Gerstell, Pennsylvania Game Commission, Harrisburg, Pa.
Vice-President, Walter P. Taylor, Faculty Exchange, College Station, Texas.
Secretary, Frank C. Edminster, Soil Conservation Service, Upper Darby, Pa.
Treasurer, Lee E. Yeager, Illinois Natural History Survey, Urbana, Ill.

Regional Representatives:

Regional 1 (northeast), Logan J. Bennett, Pennsylvania State College, State College, Pa.
Region 2 (southeast), Walter A. Gresh, 802 Clemont Drive, N.E., Atlanta, Ga
Region 3 (north central), H. D. Ruhl, Department of Conservation, Lansing, Mich.
